LADIES' DAY AT MONCRIEF

LARGE CONCOURSE OF FAIR SEX GUESTS OF JACKSONVILLE MANAGEMENT.

Winning of Four Favorites Gives Occasion a Pleasing Turn-Besom Victorious in Handicap Feature of Card.

Jacksonville, Fla., December 13.—This was ladies' day at Moncrief Park. It was the first of these occasions this winter and despite cold and disagreeable weather, a large crowd turned out. A good card was provided by the association and as four of the six races were won by favorites, the guests were well pleased with the afternoon's entertainment. The feature race, the Ladies' Handicap, which was a dash at six furlongs, found P. S. P. Bandolph's good sprinter, Besom, first home after leading all the way.

a dash at six furlongs, found P. S. P. Raudolph's good sprinter, Besom, first home after leading all the way.

John W. Schorr was forced to stand a boost of $200 to retain Bob Co. after the latter had won the fifth race. I. B. Bradfield, who is organizing a racing stable, was responsible for the run-up. Mr. Bradfield purchased the two-year-old Naughty Lad carlier in the day from Wayne Joplin.

Jockey Dave Nicol, who arrived a few days ago, received a letter from a prominent turfman in Mexico City offering him an engagement for next year. Nicol probably will accept and will leave for Mexico City in the spring.

The mare Snow Ball has been retired. She was placed on the schooling list a few days ago by starter Dade and as she is heavily in foal to John A, her owner decided to turn her out.

James H. McCormick, the well-known American trainer who has been training for a prominent German turfman during the past year or two, was a visitor at Moncrief this afternoon. He will remain until after the holidays.

James Boland, formerly a prominent rider in the west, arrived from Pensacola this morning with The Monk.

News was received here this morning of the death of Dr. Keouch, the well-known vectoring in News was received here this morning of the death of Dr. Keongh, the well-known veterinarian who officiated as paddock judge at Monerief last winter. Dr. Keongh died at Covington. Ky., yesterday after a lingering illness with Bright's disease.

terday after a lingering illness with Bright's tisease.

Jockey T. Koerner is due to arrive some day this week. His employer, Wayne Joplin, has made several engagements for him on Saturday next.

There are but few empty stalls at Monerief and those not already occupied have been spoken for by morsemen who are conditioning their vearlings at the Kentucky tracks. T. P. Hayes and George H. Whitney will both be here shortly from Lexington with their youngsters, while another lot is to be shipped from New York for A. G. Weston. The band of yearlings that Harry Payne Whitney sent south to Albert Simons is a good-looking lot. T. C. McDowell has a couple of extra good lookers, while John W. Pangle has two in his stable that are credited with being much above the ordinary. The Pons youngsters are especially forward and several of them are quick beginners. George P. Chinn and J. W. Frey have a fine bunch, including several Cesarions.

S. C. HILDRETH'S YEARLINGS.

New York, December 13.—S. C. Hildreth's year-lings are a fine, picked lot. There are nine in all, eight colts and one filly. All are now close to their two-year-old form and show great improvement since seen last fall.

eight colts and one filly. All are now close to their two-year-old form and show great improvement since seen last fall.

The half-brother to that sterling race horse, High-hall, is a bay colt by Ben Strome—Strychinia, and a better-looking colt it would be hard to find. He has size and quality galore and is the favorite of the stable.

A chestnut colt by Cunard—Rigoletto has all the carmarks of a nice colt. His racing lines are of the best, and he stands close to sixteen hands. A colt by St. Avonicus—Eonic has the appearance of a shifty youngster that should come to hand early. The bay coit by Ethelbert—Rose Lady is about as nice turned a youngster as one would wish to look upon, with grand shoulders and large quarters. This colt showed unusual speed in his trials last fall.

This colt showed unusual speed in his trials last fall.

A splendid big colt is the chestnut by Cunard—Tower of Candles. He is put up on strong racing lines all around.

A bay colt by Cunard—Lady Bashti has a racy appearance and should come to hand early.

The Ethelbert—Goldie Cad colt is a handsome bey that showed a few good trials last fall and is greatly liked by the stable hands.

A bay colt by Burgomaster—Fauna shows to be a nice, evenly made colt all around and stands about 15.3 hands high.

A chestnut filly by Cunard—Grail has grand shoulders, shows plenty of length and has an extra good quarter for a filly.

CORRECTION OF PRICE.

Through an error in telegraphic transmission, the place odds on Del Cruzador in race 93254 was incorrectly printed. It should have read 3 to 1.

GREAT STAKES READY FOR ENTRIES

Eastern Associations Show Their Faith in Future of Racing by Opening Fixtures.

Two of the great racing organizations of the east, the Coney Island Jockey Club and the Westchester Racing. Association, have just made stake announcements that satisfactorily indicate their belief in their ability to carry on racing at Sheepshead Bay and Belmont Park in the future as in the past. The Coney Island Jockey Club's amouncement is of the terms of the Futurity of 1913, this great event having already closed for 1911 and 1912. The advertisement of the conditions of the Futurity of 1913 will appear in next Saturday's edition of Daily Racing Form.

The Westchester Racing Association's proffer to owners is of the Juvenile Stakes, Ladies Stakes and Belmont Stakes of 1912 and the Matron Stakes and Belmont Stakes of 1912 and the Matron Stakes and Belmont for three-year-olds, and the Matron for two-year-olds, the Ladies for three-year-old filles, the Belmont for three-year-olds, and the Matron for mares covered in 1910, the produce to race in the event as two-year-olds. Advertisement of these stakes will appear in Daily Racing Form of next Friday.

It is the obvious duty of owners to demonstrate mares covered in 1910, the produce to race in the event as two-year-olds. Advertisement of these stakes will appear in Daily Racing Form of next Friday.

It is the obvious duty of owners to demonstrate their approval of the course of these foremost of American turf bodies in the only effective way open to them—by making entries and by making many entries. It is no time for skimping in that regard. Of course the eastern owners will make entries about to the limit of their stable resources, but western owners should do likewise. Under present conditions New York racing is the citadel of the sport and it devolves upon owners everywhere to respond generously to the appeal now made for the support of New York racing.

The Westchester events close for entries Saturday. December 31. 1910; the Futurity closes Monday.

The West-fester events close for entries Saturday December 31, 1910; the Futurity closes Monday January 2, 1911.

GARNER RIDES SONIA WELL.

GARNER RIDES SONIA WELL.

San Francisco, Cal., December 13.—Enfield, well handled by jockey Taylor, won the Rosinante Handicap by a nose from Raleigh P. D. at Oakland today, A field of five faced starter Dwyer, with Raleigh P. D. ruling as favorite. When the barrier went up Roy Junior stumbled, and again during the running of the race, thereby losing all chance, Enfield outgamed Raleigh P. D. in the last few jumps.

One of the features of the day was a brilliant ride by G. Garner on Sonia, favorite for the fifth race. The mare propped at the start and was practically left, but closed the lost ground gradually and in a drive beat Wineberry by a narrow margin. Garner put up another good ride on Warfare and landed her winner by a head from lex, which was in close quarters during one stage of the race.

Tender Bloom, from the McManus barn, graduated from the maiden ranks in the first race. Dargin, heavily backed, beat Blacksheep in the last race.

Jockey Diggins will again be allowed to accept mounts, as it has been shown that Star Actor is a rail runner.

The horses belonging to Capt. E. B. Cassatt shipped in good shape, and trainer J. Simon Healy has put the string into active training. In the lot are Cintrella, The Bailiff's Daughter, Sallie o'Day, Toc· Dancer and the following yearlings: Uncle Henry Harrison, b. g, by Aeronaut—Netta; Change of Air, br. f, by Aeronaut—Northminster; Patent Stopper, b. f, by Aeronaut—Northminster; Patent Stopper, b. f, by Aeronaut—Corker; Sleepland, ch. c, by Dolee Far Niente—Land of the Free. Trainer Healy also has H. B. Duryea's Belfast in his barn. Capt. and Mrs. E. B. Cassatt expect to reach the coast about the first of the year.

George Wentworth has a weanling half-brother to Jim Basey, of which he thinks a great deal. He is by Orsini—Dora I. Next. year Dora I. highly since Jim Basey has achieved such success.

JUAREZ HAS A CHILLY DAY.

El Paso, Tex., December 13.—Despite chilly yeather a fair-sized crowd attended the races at Terrazas Park today, and although the card was only ordinary good racing was witnessed all afternoon. The handicap at one mile was easily the feature of the day. Helmet, from the Bradley stable, was a top-heavy favorite but failed to justify the expectations of his backers and was beaten by Mondow.

the expectations of his backers and was beaten by Meadow.

Favorites had a bad day, only two succeeding in winning. The midget fockey, J. Allen, distinguished himself by riding two winners at remunerative odds. The horses of William Walker, F. M. Hopper and G. B. Morris arrived today from Oakland. All shipped in first-class condition.

The third race today witnessed one of the peculiar angles of mutuel betting, there being no tickets sold on Lucky Mose in the place machine and no tickets sold on Workbox to run third.

Senor A. De la Arena, secretary of the Mexican Jockey Club of Mexico City, arrived yesterday and will spend the winter season here. Senor De la Arena reports that in the City of Mexico the keenest interest is taken in the racing at Terrazas Park, and that after the holidays many prominent residents of that city will visit Juarez.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Molera & Josephs have purchased a yearling at Oakland from Clarence Waterhouse which has been named Sister J. She is a big brown filly, by Eddie Jones-Humidity, and looks much like Bubbling Water, which was bred by Burns & Waterhouse.

Water, which was bred by Burns & Waterhouse.

James H. McCormick will secure the services of a thoroughly capable jockey while in this country to ride the horses he trains for the Weinberg stable in Germany. Jack Sumter, who rode for the stable last season, has had an offer to ride in France, which he will likely accept.

The directors of the Florida State Midwinter Fair Association have decided to sell to the highest responsible bidder the betting ring privileges for the Tampa meeting, beginning January 2. Bids will be received by the secretary of the association at Tampa until Saturday next, when the contract for the privilege will be awarded.

It is said that William Lanahau, of Baltimore, will purchase several horses of good class to race will purchase several horses of good class to race on the New York and Maryland courses next season. In former years Mr. Lanahan was interested in show horses and his exhibits captured many blue ribbons. Wallace Lanahan, Mr. Lanahan's nephew maintains a stable of cross-country horses, which he races chiefly at hunt meetings in Maryland and Virginia.

PENSACOLA PANNING OUT POORLY.

Pensacola, Fla., December 13.—Chanate's victory this afternoon caused considerable adverse comment because of her sudden form improvement. Somebody profited extensively by her success, for she was backed from 5 to 1 to 6 to 5. The layers were also heavily multiced by the victories of T. H. McBride and Louis Katz.

A feature of today's racing was that all the winners excepting T. H. McBride had an outside rect Louis Katz. feature of today's racing was that all the win-excepting T. H. McBride had an outside post position.

Jockey L. Jackson was suspended for three days,

Nominations for Great English Stakes Reveal Reigning Sovereign's Racing Plans.

Nominations for most of the big English stakes closed recently, and the English turfites are jubilant over the fact that there is hardly a stake of note in which King George is not represented. The royal purple and scarlet is in for Newmarket, Ascot, Goodwood, Epsom and Doncaster, and he has also honored Manchester with his patronage. To look still farther ahead, he can be found as a subscriber for the Two Thousand Guineas of 1912, with two Florizel coils from Leok Doon and Guinea Henry Florizel coils and the Leokand Coils of the Co and won in the joint interests of his late father and Sir Frederick Johnstone, happily still hale and learly though of late years all too seldom seen on a race course.

"It would be gratifying to be able to congratulate the present lord on the possession of horses of the same high class that were wont to carry the once-famous chocolate and yellow sleeves, and although the time has not yet arrived, we may still hope. Sir William Bass has three entered and A. F. Basset a brace, as also Sir Ernest Cassel, some of whose horses—about a dozen, I believe—will shortly be transferred to the charge of John Brewer, and included among them will presumably be the colt by Gallinule out of Flair, which, together with his dam, was at the sale of the late Sir Daniel Cooper's stud sold to F. C. Stern for $75,000, but subsequently passed on privately to his present owner.

"The announcement that Lord Cadogan had retired from racing would seem to have been premature, as he nominates a colt by Isinglass out of Currajong, and while noting with satisfaction the entry of Javelin by the Duke of Devonshire one regrets that Lord Derby has but one entered, in Corncob. Lord Durham is represented by a couple of Cyllene colts and George Edwardes by an Eager and a Santol colt, while the American sportsman, H. B. Duryea, has three to his name. With Alchemist and King Mark Lord Falmouth has two strings to his bow, as have Sir R. C. Garton with Singapore and Cataline and J. H. Houldsworth with a couple of Marcocolts, one from Giass and the other from Florida. Lord Howard de Walden, Arthur James and Sir R. W. B. Jardine are similarly placed, and J. B. Joel goes one better with a St. Frusquin and two Sundridge colts, as axainst four entered by S. B. Joel.

"Prince Karl Kinsky of Zoedone and Grand National fame, whose horses are to be trained at Kingsciere, by Absolute, of which the second named is by Count Schomberg out of Jean's Folly and the last by Gallinule out of Cherry Lass. Cairngorm, Bexhill and Gentilhomme are the several representatives of the Duke of Westminster. L. Winans' Sir Colin enjoys the distinction of being own brother to Sir Martin, and Mr. Whitney, who is the most liberal nominator of all, can choose from three colts by Hamburg, two by Burgomaster and one by Adam."

NAMES FOR WOODLANDS YEARLINGS.

Barney Schreiber has already bestowed names on about half of the coming two-year-olds produced at Woodlands Stock Farm, his famous breeding establishment near St. Louis, Mo. The list includes youngsters by Deutschland. Bannockburn, Yorkshire Lad, Sain, Joe Carey, Sempronius, Lamplighter, Samson, Woolsthorpe, Cesariou, St. Avonicus, Monsieur de L'Orme, Canopus and Balgowan. Some of these are outside stallions to which Mr. Schreiber bred a few of his mares that seemed specially to fit in with their respective blood lines. Most of the Woodlands yearlings of this season are, as in the past, sired by Woodlands stallions. The list of those already named follows:

Albert Jones, b. c. by Samson—Lady Anderson.
Anna Schneider, b. f, by Deutschland—Yokohama. Bad Witness, br. f, by Bannockburn—Can Remember.

Bill Lamb, b. c. by Monsieur de L'Orme-New Cun Curran, b. c. by St. Avonicus—Angeleta.

Winner—Ch. c, by First Mate—Celluloid (trained by A. J. Goldsborough).

Went to post at 2:15. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. JOHN A. MUNRO went to the front soon after the start and won all the way, but had to be hard ridden to outstay MANHEIMER. The latter was messed about and cut off a couple of times on the backstretch, but made a fast finish. O EM closed a gap and, finishing with a rush, would have been second in a few more strides. MARIE HYDE ran well to the stretch and tired badly at the end.
